NEW PROGRAMME FOR AIR FRANCE

Starting from to-day, July 5, and continuing for the next three Wednesdays, July 12, 19 and 26, the Air France mail plane from France will arrive in Hongkong on Wednesdays at 1 p.m. and will leave the same day at 2 p.m. for Hanoi and France.

POSSIBILITIES OF EUROPE WAR

Roosevelt Gravely Concerned

HYDE PARK, NEW YORK, July 4 (Reuter).—It had been made known to newspaper correspondents that President Roosevelt is gravely concerned with the possibilities of war in Europe and is keeping in close touch with developments.

It has also been made known that the President believes that the action aroused by Representatives in refusing to repeal the arms embargo only added to the possibilities of war.

CENTURY OF FARMING PROGRESS

ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY SHOW OPENS IN WINDSOR GREAT PARK

Livestock Final Entries Total Over Four Thousand

LONDON, July 4 (BWS).—The centenary show of the Royal Agricultural Society, which opens to-day in Windsor Great Park, is the largest agricultural show ever held and is likely to break all previous records in many directions. Covering 120 acres on which 4,000 tons of timber have been used for stands and sheds it illustrates a century of farming progress.

Final entries of livestock total 4,548 compared with 4,014 in the Windsor show of 1889 and 2,958 at Cardiff last year.

Among them are 32 animals entered by the King from the Royal farms at Windsor, Sandringham and Stoke Newington, Cornwall. There is also an entry from Buckingham Palace, a 17-year-old Cleveland bay mare, named Woodlands.

The King and Queen will visit the show to-morrow and again on Friday when they will be accompanied by Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret while Queen Mary will attend on Thursday. Another Royal visitor expected during the week is the Duke of Gloucester.

Among the 450 stands are one erected by the Ministry of

POWERS FACED WITH VITAL ISSUE MAINTAIN OR ABANDON INTERESTS IN CHINA

Chinese Foreign Minister's Broadcast Speech On Japan's Policy To Monopolise Asia

Japanese policy and the future of foreign interests in China formed the subject of a most interesting broadcast address which was delivered over the Chungking Radio Station (XGOY) to Europe on Thursday last, June 29, by Dr. Wang Chung-hui, China's Minister for Foreign Affairs.

In the course of his address, Dr. Wang warned all foreign powers, and Britain in particular, of the danger which confronts them if Japanese aggression and expansion is unchecked by co-ordinated action.

"The Powers are now faced with the vital issue of whether to maintain or abandon their treaty rights in this part of the world," he declared. "In my opinion, to come to a compromise offers no last solution, as it is the fixed policy of the aggressor to monopolise and preserve Asia exclusively for herself."

Addressing his listeners, Dr. Wang said:—The underlying motive behind Japan's unprovoked attack on China nearly two years ago was jealousy of China's rapid modernization. Japan makes no secret of the fact that the object of her invasion is the complete enslavement of the Chinese people, the control of all the natural resources of China and the monopolization of the trade of Asia. Under such conditions, China has only one way out, and that is to fight to a finish. Although the invader is in military occupation of part of our territory, our power of resistance becomes stronger and stronger as the war progresses.

Respect for Rights

The Chinese people appreciate the world's sympathy as well as the material assistance rendered this country by the peace-loving nations. All of you, who are anxious to preserve peace, can help us to carry on our fight to uphold the principles of democracy, freedom and respect for the rights of others.

This assistance can be rendered in more ways than one. Remember that every Japanese article boycotted, every Japanese commercial order rejected, every Japanese financial transaction terminated, (Continued on Page 9)

Netherlands Neutrality

THE HAGUE, July 4 (Reuter).—It is revealed that demarches rejecting possible guarantees for Holland by Britain and France were made on July 1 by the Dutch Ministers in London and Paris.

The Ministers emphasized the Netherlands' neutrality and independence.

CHINA WAR:

SEVERE KWANGTUNG FIGHTING

IMPORTANT HEIGHTS OCCUPIED

SHIUNG, July 4 (Central).—Indicative of the severity of fighting in the Kongmoon-Sunwui area, large numbers of Japanese dead and wounded have been conveyed to Kongmoon during the past few days.

A number of important heights in the area have been occupied by the Chinese.

Brisk engagements are taking place in the Tsungia sector. According to refugees fleeing from Shenkong, south of Tsungia, the Japanese have suffered heavily. During a gun duel on June 28 the Japanese barracks at Lichassu were hit by six Chinese shells, killing forty Japanese officers and men.

Fierce Fighting

AN UNDISCLOSED PLACE, NORTH KWANGSU, July 4 (Central).—Chinese forces in a vigorous offensive, have penetrated into the town of Hsialan, southeast of Hwaiyin in north Kwangsu, and are engaging in fierce street fighting with the Japanese.

It is said that a Chinese dare-to-die corps broke into the town by scaling the wall and then let in the bulk of the Chinese forces. The Japanese, hidden inside civilian houses, are holding out stubbornly.

Meanwhile, Chinese units have also broken into Lianshui, north-east of Hwaiyin, following a series (Continued on Page 9)

"NO WAR OVER DANZIG"

British Reactions Should Persuade Hitler To Look Elsewhere For His Next Foreign Venture

LONDON, JULY 4 (REUTER).—THERE WILL BE NO WAR OVER DANZIG IS THE BELIEF OF VERNON BARTLETT WRITING IN THE "NEWS-CHRONICLE."

The diplomatic correspondent of the paper advances the theory that the alarming rumours during the week-end were purposely encouraged in Nazi circles to test the British reactions.

The correspondent points out that those reactions should persuade Herr Hitler to look elsewhere for his next foreign venture.

The Poles, Vernon Bartlett also believes, will do everything, save lose land or honour, in order to prevent war "even if the Danzig Senate were to vote for reunion with Germany or Hitler were to pronounce Danzig citizens German citizens."

"The Polish Government would probably not go beyond an official protest since no change in Danzig constitution was legal without the consent of the League of Nations Council."

But the Poles would react immediately were any interference with their treaty rights in Danzig to be attempted. Meanwhile speculation on the probable next step in regard to the Danzig issue continues rife.

The possibility of Polish representations to the Senate over the militaristic moves in Danzig are still freely discussed in the press where it is reported that the Polish Ambassador, M. Rascynski, is going to Warsaw by air following his talk with the British Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, yesterday. (See Also Page 9)

FURTHER WATER RESTRICTIONS

The restrictions introduced on July 1 have not had the effect of reducing consumption sufficiently to ease the strain on the filters, according to a statement issued by the Water Works Office. This is attributed to the fact that the weather of the last few days has been sunny and has caused a higher rate of consumption during the reduced hours.

It is not possible to maintain the present hours of supply and, commencing at 10 o'clock to-night, the water will be shut off in all districts from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m. daily until further notice.

BODY FOUND IN WELL

Kowloon City villagers discovered the body of an unidentified man in a public well yesterday morning.

The body was dressed in black Chinese clothing and decomposition had begun to set in. Villagers took the body out of the well and made a report to the police, who had the corpse removed to the mortuary.

Polling is taking place in the Parliamentary by-election at Caerphilly caused by the death of Mr. Morgan Jones, former Labour member for the division. (BWS).

THETIS MEN COULD HAVE ESCAPED IF RESCUE SHIPS HAD BEEN IN VICINITY WITHIN FEW HOURS: INQUIRY RESUMED

"Marker Buoy Ought To Have Been Seen By Accompanying Tug"—Capt. Oram

Only 24 Hours In Which To Escape Instead Of 48

LONDON, JULY 4 (REUTER).—HAD THE RESCUE SHIPS BEEN IN THE VICINITY WITHIN A FEW HOURS, THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT THE MEN ABOARD THE THETIS WOULD HAVE ESCAPED DURING THE NIGHT OF THE DISASTER.

This conviction was expressed by Captain H. P. K. Oram when giving evidence on resumption of the public inquiry into the loss of the submarine Thetis in Liverpool Bay on June 2, with a loss of 99 lives: Sir Donald Somervell, K.C., the Attorney-General, is representing the Admiralty at the hearings.

Capt. Oram, who was one of the four survivors, said that the marker buoy sent up by the Thetis after she had struck the bottom ought to have been seen by the accompanying tug. Furthermore, it was always a matter for immediate attention if a submarine did not send her surfacing signal within the specified period.

If the tugs had been notified at 5.40 p.m. that the submarine had failed to come to the surface, they might have got from Liverpool to the scene by 8.30 p.m. if they had been told where to go. "Dusk was about 9 p.m., continued the witness. "If the ships had been in the vicinity, I have no doubt that the men would have escaped during the night."

Answering questions, Capt. Oram said that it was the usual practice for submarines to be taken to Gare Loch for test dives. Generally speaking, it was safer water.

He did not attach any particular importance to the fact that the first diving test of the Thetis in Gare Loch was omitted. He was not able to say that a submarine had not been previously tested for the first time in Liverpool waters. The plan of rescue, which had been decided upon by 8 p.m., could have been put into operation immediately had the rescue ships been on the scene.

At the time the atmosphere inside the submarine was good and the crew were strong.

Capt. Oram agreed that the effect of having over a hundred men on board instead of the normal crew was that they had only 24 hours instead of 48 in which to escape. (See Also Page 9)

Negotiations On Tientsin

CRAIGIE "KEEN ON SUCCESS"

TOKYO, July 4 (Reuter).—The British Ambassador, Sir Robert Craigie, to-day discussed with the Foreign Minister, Mr. Arita, the agenda for the forthcoming Anglo-Japanese conference on the Tientsin situation.

Sir Robert later told newspapermen that he was neither optimistic regarding the conference, but said that he was very keen to bring the conversations to a successful conclusion and expected that the Japanese side would make similar efforts.

Junk Captured By Pirates In Mirs Bay

The capture by pirates on Sunday of a fishing junk in Mirs Bay, has just been reported.

Yip Mow, master of junk No. 667, told police yesterday at Tai-po that he was sailing from Cheungchau to Tap Mun, Grass Island, in company with another junk, the number of which was unknown, when they were met near Fung Head by a sampan with six men on board, who hailed to them to stop.

Yip said he disregarded the order and carried on, whereupon a shot was fired at his junk, which, however, was not hit. He managed to get away, but the other junk, which had four folks, was captured by the pirates and taken away.

Trade talks will be begun in London by a delegation of over 30 Swedish industrialists who have arrived as guests of the Federation of British Industries. The visit follows that paid to Sweden last April by the Secretary of Overseas Trade, Mr. R. S. Hudson. (BWS).

HONGKONG FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL REPORT: A MOST SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The annual general meeting of the Hongkong Football Association will be held at its offices in the Bank of Canton building on July 10, at 5.30 p.m.

Besides routine business, the meeting will deliberate on amendments to rules providing for the appointment of an assistant honorary secretary and changing the procedure with respect to payment of insurance premiums on trophies and the division of gate receipts, when matches in the Challenge Shield Competition are played on grounds other than those of the competing clubs.

An amendment to rule 8 (5) of the competition proposes that, in such cases, 45 per cent. will go to each competing club and 10 per cent. to the club on whose grounds the play take place.

REPORT FOR 1938-39

The report of the Association for 1938-39 opens with the statement that the past year has been most successful. The accounts show a net profit of $7,448.70 as against a deficit of $96.90 for the last year. This happy state of affairs is due to good receipts in all representative matches under the jurisdiction of the Association. On the other hand, expenses were reduced as low as possible in regard to the running of the various competitions and the work of the Association generally.

The Association was able through the good offices of Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth and Fleming, the Treasurers, to acquire the present spacious office at a fair rental. A portion of these premises has been recently been sublet. The total number of Clubs in membership is 30, including 6 new affiliations.

INTER-PORT COMPETITIONS

Owing to the disturbed conditions in China, the Association had to refuse the kind invitation of Shanghai to send a team to participate in the annual Interport series in February last. The Council recommended however, that a team should be sent to Shanghai in November.

On the other hand, opportunity was taken to invite Manila to visit Hongkong and the games were played in February, resulting in Hongkong winning all the series of matches. In April last, a return visit was made to Manila, but Hongkong was not so fortunate on this occasion, losing the interport match as well as one of the other games.

For the past two seasons the players participating in the Interport Match with Macao were selected from the Junior Division and at the specific request of the Macao Association, a team consisting of senior players was selected this year and visited Macao on the April 16, resulting in a win for Hongkong by two goals to nil.

CUP MATCHES

The Lai Wah Cup this year was won by the Chinese beating the Civilian by the score of 4-2.

The Council issued invitations to 5 nations to participate in the "Sunday Herald" Charity Cup and China was again successful in winning beating Portugal in the final by 9 to 1. The gate receipts collected from the competition for the current year constituted a record, as a result, the Association was able to distribute the sum of $7,700.00 amongst various institutions.

Only 2 games were necessary to decide the winners of the Governor's Cup trophy, which was again won by the Chinese A.A.F.

Many interesting games were played in the Challenge Shield Competition, particularly in the Senior Division, when S. C. "A" and Kowloon had to meet 3 times and S. C. "B" and Eastern A. A. twice in the second round. The Senior Shield was won by S. C. "A" (this being 4 years in succession) with Hongkong Police runners-up. The Junior Shield was won by Royal Scots with Middlesex Regiment runners-up.

BENEFIT MATCH

The Council regrets to record the death of Shiu Chak Wing, of the Kiti Chai Club, who died as a result of an injury sustained in the course of a league match. A benefit match was played to raise funds for his dependents, and the sum of $2,023.77 was paid over, in addition to a sum of $200 donated from the Sunday Herald Cup Fund, as well as another $200 donated from the Kowloon Cup Charity Fund.

Apart from the "Sunday Herald" Cup Competition and the Kowloon Cup Competition, which were organized with the sanction of the Association (a sum of $5,500.00 from the latter being donated to charity) other charity matches were played in the course of the season resulting in the sum of $8,406.35 being raised for various charities.

The Armistice Day match between the Association and the United Services proved a great success resulting in the season sum of $2,340.03 being remitted to Earl Haig's Fund.

THE LEAGUE

The League proved to be very exciting. At one time many teams in the various divisions were vying for honours. As it was, there was a deciding match in both the Senior and Second Divisions to decide the runners up positions, and there were several deciding matches in the Third Division to decide the team to meet the Royal Air Force for the runners up position in this Division.

The ultimate winners of the various Divisions were:

1st Division.—Winners: S. C. "A".

Runners up Eastern A.A.

2nd Division.—Winners: S. C. A. A.; Runners up Middlesex Remount.

3rd Division.—Winners: Royal Scots; Runners up 30th R. A.

OMAR BROTHERS DEFEATED

Close Game In Open Pairs Bowls

Leading by 20 shots to 17 on the 19th head, K. M. Omar and U. M. Omar, of the Craigengower C.C., lost to T. Robson and H. Nisr, of the Kowloon B.G.C., by 22-20 at the Kowloon Football Club green yesterday afternoon in the Lawn Bowls Open Pairs championship.

U. M. Omar, partnered by his younger brother, A. M. Omar, won the Pairs title in 1937.

Trailing 16-6 on the 12th head, the Omars rallied to register a five on the 15th head then 3, 2, 2, and a single to lead 20-17. But on the last two heads the Kowloon Bowling Green Club pair collected a three and a two to emerge winners by two shots.

On the same green J. Fraser and E.C. Fincher beat D.C.W. Fitches and R. Ellis by 23 shots to 12, the losers scoring on only six heads.

On the Kowloon Cricket Club green W. Glendinning and W. Mair, the Police R.C. pair, beat L.C.R. Souza and C.S. Roselet, of the Craigengower C.C., by 23 shots to 19.

BRITISH OPEN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

ST. ANDREW'S, July 4 (Reuter).—There was steady rain in the second round of the British Open golf championship after which 130 leaders will qualify for the competition proper beginning to-morrow.

All players reversed courses to-day and among the early returns on the new course were Donald Cutts, a Ryder Cup probable, with 76 and an aggregate of 157.

Henry Cotton, equalling the course record with 69 and an aggregate of 142, and Lawson Little, with 73 and an aggregate of 142, jointly led the field in the afternoon. Jack McLean, ex-Scottish champion, had 73 and

WIMBLEDON SURPRISES:

BRITAIN HAS BAD DAY: AUSTIN LOSES TO COOKE: U.S.-EUROPEAN FINAL?

WIMBLEDON, July 4 (Reuter).—The weather kept fine and sunny and there was a slight breeze at Wimbledon yesterday when the Tennis Championships were continued.

There was an early surprise in the Men's Singles, Henkel (Germany) eliminating Kukuljevic (Yugoslavia) with surprising ease in three straight sets 6-1, 6-3, 6-2, but the biggest disappointment to British players was Austin's defeat by Elwood Cooke (U.S.) also in three straight sets 6-3, 6-0, 6-1.

Austin's Poor Form

Cooke's win over Austin was also surprisingly easy. Austin showed that he was only a shadow of his former self, although he gave occasional flashes of brilliance, notably with passing shots. But generally his timing was poor.

Another surprisingly easy win was obtained by Puncee (Yugoslavia) who beat Eugene Smith (U.S.) 6-0, 6-2, 6-2 in the quarter finals.

Riggs (U.S.) beat Ghans Mohammed (India) 6-2, 6-2, 6-2. Henkel will meet Cooke and Riggs will meet Puncee in the semi-finals.

WOMEN'S SINGLES

Yesterday was generally a bad day for Britain. Mrs. Sarah Fabry (U.S.) beat Mrs. Dorothy Round Little (Britain) 6-1, 3-6, 6-2, in the fourth round.

Mrs. Little frequently overdrove and netted. She showed

CHINA'S YOUNG MEN VOLUNTEER FOR SERVICE

CHUNGKING, July 4 (Central).—At least half of the hundreds of thousands of young men who are receiving military training in the interior of China are volunteers for war service, a high military official revealed after a four-month tour to inspect the training of recruits in the provinces of Hupeh, Szechwan and Kweichow.

The recruitment of new soldiers has not even begun to scratch China's vast resources of manpower, the official said. It is estimated that recruitment can go on at the present rate for 20 years before a serious drain on China's manpower is evident.

The fundamental recruiting unit in China is the village, according to the official. Each village of 100 families is required to supply three recruits a month to the army. To each county there is assigned one recruiting officer who once a month makes the rounds of the various villages to supervise the recruiting procedure.

"FIVE OF A KIND" AT THE KING'S

The Dionne Quintuplets will be revealed as real entertainers on the screen of the King's Theatre to-day in their third and best 20th Century-Fox starring picture, "Five Of A Kind."

Although the Quins are the big highlight of the picture with an amazing portrayal of their newly acquired versatility, a well knit story, the plot of which sweeps from the small Canadian village to the throbbing turmoil of Metropolitan New York, provides a thrilling and entertaining background for the screen antics of these fascinating youngsters.

Jean Hersholt excels in his role of the beloved doctor and gives a convincing and gripping performance. The fast, breezy action, romance and thrills of the story, however, revolve around the other members of the cast, notably Claire Trevor as an ace reporter, and Cesar Romero, romantically inclined toward Claire, but her resourceful and persistent rival in other matters. Slim Summerville, Henry Wilcoxon, Inez Courtney, John Qualen, Jane Darwell and Pauline Moore are also featured.

BLAZING AIRMAN HOOKED FROM HIS PLANE

Two farmers rescued a blazing man from a wrecked R. A. F. plane on May 18 by hooking a branch of a tree into his clothing and dragging him clear. A second occupant of the plane was burned to death.

The plane crashed in a park close to the road in the village of Penton Mewsey, Hants. The branch which saved the man had been torn from the tree when the Dennis Jacobs—the crewed over and machine crashed into it.

While the farmers, Mr. Edward Snow, of Charlton, and Mr. Sidney Sturgess, fought to free the man—Aircraftman (First Class) Alfred over again.

SHOWERED WITH GOOD WISHES

MR. & MRS. ARTHUR GRIMMITT'S SILVER WEDDING

On the occasion of their silver wedding, Mr. Arthur William Grimmer, Acting Chief Preventive Officer of the Imports and Exports Department, and Mrs. Grimmer, were showered with the good wishes of a large circle of friends who were entertained to a cocktail party in the Jacobean Room of the Hongkong Hotel at noon yesterday.

Mr. Grimmer has been in the Colony since 1911, and both he and his wife, who was formerly Miss Florence Annie Murray, eldest daughter of the late Mr. P. H. Murray, of the Petroleum Company, are well-known and extremely popular residents.

Mr. J. Brook, who was best man at the wedding 25 years ago, in a short speech, remarked on the personal charm of Mr. and Mrs. Grimmer and their happy married life, and proposed a toast to their health, which was heartily honoured.

The Attendance

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Grimmer's eight children, those present included Mr. F. W. Shafrin, A.S.P., Mr. H. A. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chan, Mr. P. E. Baskett, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Silver, Mr. Dhun Ruttonjee, Mr. D. Dass, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wong, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hollands, Mr. W. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Colledge, Mr. and Mrs. J. Davidson, Mr. R. A. Troengrove, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thomson, Mr. Sam Howard, Mr. W. J. Bunting, Mr. W. Old, Mr. J. Gibson, Mr. A. L. Powell, Mrs. L. Murray, Miss May Murray, Mr. P. U. Wat, Mr. L. Kwong-to, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Andrews and Miss C. Mutton.

FOUR WEDDINGS AT REGISTRY

Four Chinese couples were married yesterday at the Registry, Supreme Court, with Mr. T. J. Gould, Deputy Registrar of Marriages, officiating. The parties were:—

Mr. Francisco Chan, of No. 12, Nam Kok Road, Kowloon City, and Miss Justina Felise. The witnesses were Messrs. Antonio Lao and Kwan Chok.

Mr. Fung Yiu-sang, of No. 33, Haiphong Road, and Miss Joyce Chan, of No. 16, Po Tak Street. The witnesses were Messrs. J. Go Simson and Fung Yuen-chi.

Mr. Cheung Tik-ping, salesman at the Colonial Dispensary, and Miss Tong Shiu-chum, of No. 3, George Lane. The witnesses were Messrs. Kwong Pan and Hau Ming.

Mr. Kwok Chen-hwa, cashier of the Gloucester Hotel, and Miss Cheng Kam-ye, of No. 31, Kiliung Street. The witnesses were Messrs. Li Yin and Carlos M. Choy.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The following forthcoming marriages are announced:—

Mr. Augusto Barro, salesman, of No. 14, Soares Avenue, Homutun, and Miss Lizzie Madginton, of No. 14, Waterloo Road.

Mr. Leung Kin-cheung, assistant at the Nathan Hotel, and Miss Ma Yu-ching, of No. 171, Sai Yeung Choi Street.

Mr. The Har-king, surveyor, Saravak Oil Fields Ltd., residing at No. 18, Fong Street, first floor, and Miss Wong Kwai-fong, of No. 10, San Ngar Chai Ching Street, first floor, Macao.

Mr. Fung Fung Cheung-choy, clerk, Hongkong Telephone Co., Ltd., and Miss Wong Yuen-tung, of No. 69, Wellington Street, first floor.

Mr. Fung Shun-choy, clerk, Hongkong Meat and Dairy Products Co., Ltd., and Miss Leung So-yue, of No. 12, Queen's Road East, second floor.

A third consignment of about 12,000 sacks of wheat contributed by the American Red Cross for the relief of Chinese war refugees will arrive in Hongkong sometime in the end of this month for distribution to the interior. It is learned here that the contribution was made in response to a request from the International Red Cross Society. It may be recalled that the American Red Cross has already sent two batches of wheat to China.

MR. A. POLLOCK ENTERTAINED A.P.B. Executive Leaving Colony

Last night Mr. A. Pollock, well-known local advertising executive, who has resigned prior to his departure for Australia, was given a farewell Chinese dinner by the Directors and the Chinese Staff of The Advertising and Publicity Bureau, Ltd. at the Ying King Restaurant.

During the course of the dinner, Mr. John A. Galvin, Director of The Advertising and Publicity Bureau, Ltd., traced the development of Mr. Pollock's association with the Company since he came from Scotland some three years ago.

"During that time," said Mr. Galvin, "Mr. Pollock had not only earned the full respect of his Directors, both as an efficient administrator and competent advertising man, but by his knowledge, conscientiousness and unfailing attention to duty, he had received the full confidence of the Company's clients, so that during his stay with the Company he had built for himself an enviable reputation both as a business man and as an advertising consultant."

Wider Field

"It was with regret that the Directors had accepted Mr. Pollock's resignation and they felt that the staff would be happy to know that they had offered every inducement to get Mr. Pollock to stay, with them, but Mr. Pollock felt that by going to Australia, he would be entering a wider field of activity, one where he hoped to again establish himself as an advertising consultant."

"In view of what we know of Mr. Pollock, we are confident that he will achieve his objective but with his departure, we would like him to know that he takes with him the complete goodwill of the Company and should he ever desire to return to the East either in a week or a year's time, The Advertising and Publicity Bureau, Ltd. would be pleased again to avail themselves of his services."

Round The World In Air Liners

Eager to be the first passenger to make a continuous westward flight round the world in commercial planes, Mr. Norman C. Lee, a member of a firm of brokers in New York, is bound for San Francisco with tickets which have cost him a total of £500.

He hopes to breakfast at Honolulu and to arrive back in New York on July 11 on board the first Pan-American Airways Clipper making a Transatlantic passenger trip from Europe to the United States.

Most of his journey of 24,694 miles will be made in American air-liners, but he will use also Imperial Airways, the Dutch K.L.M. and Air France machines where necessary.

Mr. Lee expects to take a day and a half longer to circle the globe than Mr. H. R. Ekins, a newspaper correspondent, who in 1936 accomplished the flight in 181 days.

Mr. Ekins, however, flew eastward and made part of the journey in the German airship Hindenburg, besides using specially chartered planes when regular air-liners were not available.

A Presentation

Mr. C. H. Wang, the oldest employee of the Company then made a presentation to Mr. Pollock on behalf of the Directors and Staff, and in doing so, voiced their appreciation of Mr. Pollock's friendliness, and during the time he had acted as Manager of the Hongkong Office, Mr. Wang said that their knowledge of his fairness had made working for him a pleasure.

The dinner concluded with a further toast to Mrs. A. Pollock, who was a guest of honour of the evening.

FRENCH POSTAGE STAMPS

The French post office continues to pour forth a flood of new postage stamps at the rate of three varieties a week.

Fortunately they are for the most part of low denomination so as to cause little financial embarrassment to collectors, while the fact that they are often quickly superseded by other philatelic novelties introduces an element of speculation that is not unattractive to stamp market operators.

Gregoire de Tours, bishop, theologian, and historian, born at Clermont de Ferrand in 539, is the subject of a 90 centimes stamp issued to commemorate the fourteenth centenary of his birth.

It is printed in carmine and bears his effigy against a background formed by a view of the ancient city.

The fifth centenary of the completion of the spire of Strasbourg Cathedral is commemorated in another new stamp of 70 centimes, and the twenty-third anniversary of the defence of Verdun by one of 80 centimes showing a view of the Porte Chausser.

R.E.O.C.A. FLANNEL DANCE

The Royal Engineers Old "Comrades" Association are holding a Flannel Dance on Saturday night at the Peninsula Hotel, dancing from 8.30 p.m. till 1 a.m.

Music will be by Dance Orchestra of the 1st Bn. The Middlesex Regiment (D.C.O.) by the kind permission of Lt.-Col. L. A. Newham, M.C., and Officers.

Novelties and spot prizes will be provided. Tickets:—Ladies $1, Gents $1.50. Members below the rank of sergeant $1.

Tables may be reserved on application to the Hon. Secy, R.E.O.C.A. Whitfield Barracks, Kowloon—Tel. No. 59191, Extension, 23, or the Hotel—Tel. Kowloon 58081.

SCHOOLS ASSIST CHINA RED CROSS

The schools of Hongkong and Kowloon are making a special effort to supply bandages to the hospitals in China through the Foreign Auxiliary of the National Red Cross Society of China.

Some of the schools have been doing this work for months while others have just begun bandage-making. It is hoped that all the schools in Hongkong and Kowloon will take part in this work.

Miss Mary Tyng, of the Foreign Auxiliary, No. 3, Sample Room, Gloucester Building, will be glad to give help and information to any school that would like to join in this good work.

Beginning from this year, the birthday of Confucius on August 27 will be observed by all Chinese schools and universities as "educational day," according to a new instruction issued by the Ministry of Education of the Chinese National Government.

The Executive Yuan yesterday formally approved of the establishment of an anti-opium hospital in Chungking with a Chinese Government grant, but the monthly upkeep will be defrayed by the Chungking Municipal Government. The proposal, submitted by the Ministry of the Interior, the Ministry of Economics Affairs and the Ministry of Finance as well as by the Chungking Municipal Government that the municipality of Chungking be rid of opium addicts and opium and drug wholesalers and retailers, by June 30, was also passed, and adopted by the Executive Yuan at its meeting.

A sum of $50,000,000 is being put up jointly by the Central Bank of China, the Farmers' Bank of China and the Bank of Communications, as agricultural development loans as a means to promote the economic development of the north-west and south-west provincial areas. Representatives of the three Government banks had previously been sent to conduct investigations of the economic conditions of these provinces, and as a result of careful planning, it has now been decided that the branch offices of these banks shall undertake to grant agricultural development loans to the amount of $50,000,000, jointly subscribed to by the three Government banks.

There will be no speaker at tomorrow's meeting of the Hongkong Y's Men's Club at St. Francis Hotel, but members are requested to prepare a few stories and jokes to make up the programme. Every member present will be expected to relate one short story, or to pay a fine of 20 cents into the Club Charity Fund.

The wedding took place at the Holy Trinity Cathedral, Shanghai, on June 28 of Mr. Geoffrey William Brown, son of Capt. and Mrs. O. C. Brown, and Miss Winifred Ambrose, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Ambrose of Hongkong and formerly of Shanghai. Mr. Herbert Aris was best man.

The Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce shall carry on with the routine duties in the event that a chairman is absent or has resigned, and no new election of a chairman shall be held during the present period of national emergency, according to an instruction just issued by the Ministry of Economic Affairs.

Dr. W. W. Yen, formerly Chinese Ambassador to Moscow, and Dr. Alfred Soakie, formerly Chinese Ambassador in Washington now in Hongkong, are making preparations to attend the International Pacific Relations Conference to be held shortly in Canada. Dr. Yen has been elected to represent the China branch of the International Pacific Relations Association. Dr. Soakie, however, has not yet decided whether to proceed to Canada, but the two Chinese delegates will return to Shanghai before sailing to Canada and will not proceed to Chungking.

The Clothes You Wear

WHY DO YOUR STOCKINGS HAVE CLOCKS?—The earliest stockings were made of cloth, and the clocks are relics of the gussets at the side.

WHY DO WIDOWS WEAR VEILS?—Elderly widows in medieval times were expected to enter a convent—hence the widow's veil.

WHY DO MEN'S HATS HAVE SILK BOWS AT THE BACK OF THE LINING?—Because the old hats used to lace up inside to fit the wearer.

WHY DOES A MAN'S TAIL SUIT HAVE TWO BUTTONS BEHIND?—These were once used to button back the flaps of the coat when riding or dancing.

WHY ARE HAT BOXES SOMETIME CALLED "BANDBOXES"?—Because this box was originally used to hold 'bands' or collars and only later adopted for hats.

WHY ARE THERE THREE LINES OF STITCHING ON THE BACK OF YOUR GLOVES?—These are relics of the old clumsy stitching of the three finger gussets which used to be carried down on to the back of the glove.

WHY IS A CHILD'S APRON CALLED A PINFORE?—Because the old used to be 'pinned' to the dress it was originally called a 'pinner'.

WHY DO MEN'S EVENING TROUSERS HAVE A STRIPE DOWN THE LEG?—They are survivals of a row of buttons which used to fasten the legs of the old-fashioned "tight" trousers.

WHY DID YOU BUY THOSE SHOES?

To wear on your feet, of course. But the protection of the feet is only one of the uses to which shoes are put in various parts of the globe.

You throw a shoe at a wedding—and unwittingly play a part in a tradition as old as the human race itself. That shoe has worn them the mysterious life force of their past, owners, and will therefore make the marriage happy and lucky one.

In Hamburg, in the thirteenth century, every bridegroom was compelled by law to make his wife a wedding present of a pair of shoes. In Transylvania to-day this custom still persists; and in Greece the best man still puts a new pair of boots on the feet of the bride.

The Russian bride used to symbolize her wifely duty by taking off her husband's boots—and then hit him on the head with one of them to prove her equality.

The Bulgarian bridegroom "pays" for his bride with "shoe money," which her father uses to buy boots for the family.

And Chinese "mother of ten" shows her gratitude to the Mother Goddess by an offering of shoes.

He's got it badly! Buys her pounds of chocolates (just as if a girl wasn't slimming) . . . sends her the flowers it's hardest to get . . . and never says 'good-night' till he's fixed to meet her tomorrow. For she's one of those women a fellow simply can't forget. Not merely the result of a good figure in good clothes—but a romantic personality . . . adorable . . . exciting.

Why? Because she's discovered "Mischief"—the desperately smart new Distributors . . . perfume, giving a girl a new chic.

CHINESE WAR RELIEF AND FOREIGN AID

Educator Describes Work In International Broadcast

Special Correspondent from Chungking

"In the work of bringing relief to sick and wounded soldiers, the women of China are doing their part in a noble and important way," declared Dr. Y. Y. Tsu, in a speech on China's War Medical Service and Overseas Contributions, specially broadcast from Chungking to Europe and America on Saturday, June 30.

Dr. Tsu, a well-known educator and sociologist, has, during the past year, been engaged as a volunteer in relief work in the interior of China.

"Inspired by the distinguished example and able leadership of the First Lady of the Land, Madame Chiang Kai-shek, who personally visits hospitals, collects gifts for the wounded and directs teams of women workers in various wartime relief activities," continued Dr. Tsu, "Chinese women everywhere are active in making garments for the army, raising funds for equipping hospitals, supplying service units with drugs and surgical instruments, and in a hundred other ways are working for the comfort and welfare of the soldiers. Many women are also serving in large numbers as nurses and relief workers at the front."

Dr. Tsu also paid high compliments to the heroic work being done by many foreign missionaries in China. In spite of repeated bombings, these mission workers have remained at their posts ministering to a people in need and suffering. Were it not for them and the friends abroad who back them from afar with material support and spiritual encouragement, many sick and wounded in the war areas would have been left without any care.

Medical Units

To-day, working under the leadership of the Chinese Red Cross Society, the New Life Movement and other organizations, at least a hundred medical units, each consisting of a dozen or more doctors and nurses, are tending the wounded and sick in the rear of the far-flung battle-line. They do not form a part of the army medical service but co-operate closely with it as a civilian auxiliary service independently financed by popular subscription.

The major responsibility for organizing and directing this civilian auxiliary medical service falls on the Field Department of the Chinese Red Cross Society, at the head of which is Dr. Robert Lim, one of the best known leaders of medical science in China. Besides directing the Field Work of the Society, Dr. Lim also runs an emergency training institute where a thousand army medical workers are at present under instruction so that they may return to their posts better equipped for their work.

Good Hospitals

Turning to army hospitals, Dr. Tsu said that many of them are handicapped by the lack of proper equipment and qualified personnel and by difficulties of transportation. The war found China inadequately prepared to cope with the large numbers of wounded and sick whose care fell at once on the shoulders of the limited medical personnel.

Appreciating these handicaps, it is a delight to come across army hospitals that are well run and can meet all reasonable standards. One such institution is a Base Hospital in a little city in South-western Hunan. It is housed in the beautiful temple of Confucius.

Base Hospital

Another well-managed hospital is the Base Hospital in a village not far from the city of Kwelin. It is located by the side of a picturesque, fast moving mountain stream, where half a dozen water wheels creak and strain day and night as they slowly, but methodically lift their loads of life-giving water and empty them into the surrounding rice fields.

Women's Part

One story will illustrate the part played by our women in wartime relief. In southwestern Hunan, a hundred girls trained by Madame Chiang herself are working in rural districts to help the farmers improve their livelihood and increase their wartime production, to explain to them the meaning of the war, and to bring a message of comfort to the families of the fallen.

Directing these workers is a young college graduate of literary tastes, whose hobby is the collection of old editions of standard works, a rather serious hobby for a lady in her twenties. To do her part in national defence, she has put aside her literary activities and is devoting her time to work among rural folk.

Missionaries' Sacrifice

The noble and wonderful work done by the Christian hospitals and the missionary doctors and nurses throughout the land is beyond praise. Even in bombed cities, these mission workers have remained at their posts, ministering to a people in need and suffering, often with great physical danger to themselves. Had it not been for them, tens of thousands of sick and wounded in the war areas would have been left without any care.

NEW DUTCH MOTORSHIP DUE HERE

TJITJALENGKA ON MAIDEN TRIP

The newest motorship of the Java-China-Japan Line N. V. the m.s. Tjitjalengka, which is due here to-day on her maiden voyage, was built to the highest class at Lloyd's by the Netherlands Shipbuilding Co. at Amsterdam; the first keelplate was laid on March 5, 1938, and the ship was launched on August 16 of the same year.

The first trip in the regular service between the Netherlands-Indies, Philippine Islands and China was started at Sourabaya on June 23, 1939.

The route on which m.s. Tjitjalengka runs with other ships of the Java-China-Japan Line leads from Sourabaya to Shanghai via Semarang, Batavia, Manila, Hongkong and Amoy; on the homeward voyage to Sourabaya, calls are made at the ports of Amoy, Hongkong, Manila, Cebu, Menado, Macassar and Boeleeng (Ball).

The ship measures 10,972 register tons, has a length of 475 feet and a cargo capacity of 11,700 tons.

Propelling machinery of the most modern construction makes it possible for the ship to maintain a speed of 15 knots.

The m.s. Tjitjalengka offers space to 64 first class passengers in roomy single and double cabins, with running hot and cold water laid on, and all fitted with their own fullsize tubbath and toilet. Cabin accommodation is provided for a further 55 second class A—and 100 second class B-passengers. Tween-deck accommodation is available for a large number of steerage passengers.

Special attention has been paid to ventilation by mechanical means as well as to the sanitary accommodation for passengers of all classes.

In fact, provision of an abundance of fresh air is the keynote in the design of this ship.

FAREWELLS MADE AT URBAN COUNCIL

Hon. Mr. A. G. Tickle Retiring

Farewells, one permanent, one temporary, were said in the course of yesterday's meeting of the Urban Council, when an average-sized agenda was dealt with.

Following the conclusion of the business of the day, the Chairman of the Council, Mr. R. R. Todd, on behalf of all members, wished "Bon Voyage" and many happy years at home to the Hon. Mr. A. G. Tickle, who is shortly leaving the Colony on retirement. Mr. Tickle, the Chairman said, had served on the Board on several occasions when he was Acting Director of Public Works, and he was sure that his general reasonableness of outlook and other excellent qualities had impressed themselves upon them.

Hon. Mr. W. N. Thomas-Tam was also leaving Hongkong for a few months' holiday and he wished him too a good trip.

Present at the meeting were:—Mr. Todd, Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke (Director of Medical Services and Vice-Chairman of the Council), Mr. Tickle, Hon. Mr. C. G. Purdus (Commissioner of Police), Dr. R. A. de Castro Basto, Dr. S. N. Chau, Hon. Mr. Tam, Mr. B. Wong Tape, Mr. Tang Shiu-kin, Mr. C. Champlin and Mr. C. J. Roe (Secretary).

The Chairman referred to correspondence relative to the provision of water-storage cisterns or tanks in eating houses and restaurants, and it was decided that the

Story Behind Gun Battle In Heart Of City

SWATOW CHINESE CHARGED

The full story behind the shooting affray in Lee Yuen Street East in broad daylight on June 5 when a Chinese detective, Wan Man, lost his life, a robber, Lau Ah-fong, was shot dead, and an attempt was made to rob Chan Tak-chi, a foki of the Sino-German Dispensary, after Chan had been assaulted, was revealed by Det-Insp. A. L. Hopkins, when he opened the case for the prosecution before Mr. R. Edwards, at the Central Magistracy yesterday.

Lau Man-chu, a Swatow Chinese, was charged with assault on Chan with intent to rob, and with being in possession of a revolver and five rounds of ammunition.

Insp. Hopkins said: Complainant in this case is Chang Tak-chi who was returning from the Overseas Chinese Bank at about 11 a.m. on June 5, with a sum of $500, which he had drawn from the bank. He was walking along Queen's Road Central when near the junction of Lee Yuen Street East he was suddenly grasped from behind and an attempt was made to take the money from his inside pocket.

Pepper Thrown

A quantity of pepper was thrown into his eyes. He shouted and managed to release himself. He ran after his attackers and, after going some distance, he heard the sound of a shot.

Detective C612, Wan Man, was shot with an automatic pistol when he approached one of the men, as a result of which he died.

Detective C613 gave chase during which a number of bystanders were shot. The gang took flight towards the Central Market. At the mouth of Pottinger Street one of the gang dropped to the ground.

Dr. R. E. Alvarez gave evidence of a post mortem examination on the body of a 30-year-old Chinese, Lau Ah-fong, whose body was identified by a detective. The cause of death was due to bullet wounds in the heart, internal haemorrhage and shock.

After the complainant, Chang Tak-chi, had given evidence the hearing was adjourned to this afternoon.

Council agreed with the suggestions contained therein.

APPLICATIONS REFUSED

Three applications for eating house licences, respectively at No. 57 Main Street, ground floor, Stanley, No. 2 Po Kong Village, ground floor, Kowloon City, and No. 151 Wanchai Road, ground floor, and an application for an offensive trade licence for gut scraping at No. 33 Pitt Street, ground floor, were refused.

Regarding the third application the Chairman said that since it was circulated to the Select Committee other applications have been sent in through the architect suggesting alterations of the premises, enlarging the kitchen and so on, and I suggest referring the matter back to the Health Officer for further reference.

In respect of an application for a milk shop licence for No. 18 Village Road, ground floor, it was decided to inform the applicant that the matter was under consideration and that he need not expect a reply for some weeks.

LICENCES GRANTED

List of licences granted by the Urban Council between June 20 and July 3 follow:—

HONGKONG, JULY 5, 1939

FIRM STAND AT DANZIG

BOTH BRITAIN and Poland will regard any act of violence—either inside or outside the Free City—as an act of war.

THIS STATEMENT, handed by the Foreign Office to representatives of the London Press, is an expression of the determination of the Democracies of Europe to call a halt to Nazi aggression. If it means anything, it means that further extension of the tactics by which the ill-conceived policy of appeasement enabled Hitler's Germany to extinguish the independence of Austria and Czechoslovakia and to conquer Poland, will be opposed by force.

FOR THE FIRST TIME, statesmen and Press have given an exhaustive and inclusive definition of aggression. The pronouncements of Lord Halifax and M. Daladier were in no way ambiguous. The "Daily Telegraph" warns the Reich against the delusion that any attempt to disguise the annexation of Danzig as a voluntary act of the people of the city can sidetrack the British guarantee. And "Figaro," which, like the "Daily Telegraph," was, at the time of Munich, a partisan of appeasement, says pointedly: "When the Germans invoke rights in Danzig, we have only one word in reply—Prague!"

TO COMPLICATE the subject of the Danzig conflict by discussion of the physical division of Germany by the corridor and the recognized injustices of Versailles is, at the present time, to cloud the issue. The regime that is now preparing to bully Poland and all Europe into acceding to another "fait accompli," cynically conceived and brutally carried out, has no mandate to represent the rights of the German people whom it has befooled and bludgeoned into a state of unthinkable political and economic slavery.

THE SITUATION is grave. Rival war fleets, including the new navy of the Soviet Union, are reported to be concentrating in the Baltic. Men and munitions, Polish and German, pour into the Free City. To the statements of Lord Halifax, Italy replies that she will join hands with her Axis partner in a war to prevent Democratic interference. Britain parades the growing strength of her land forces.

LETTER SENT TO MAGISTRATE

Most Improper And Incorrect

L. B. Holmes, of 288, the Peak, was fined $10 by Mr. Forrest at the Central Court, for disobeying the traffic signal at Wong Nei Chung Road, on June 8, about 7 a.m.

Traffic-Insp. S. C. Saunders prosecuted.

His Worship remarked: "With reference to this case, I have received from the Commandant of the Volunteer Corps a letter on behalf of the defendant, which is most improper, as I have already informed the writer by post."

"If anyone wishes to influence in any way the decision of a magistrate, his proper course is to come to Court as witness: it is most incorrect to address a magistrate with reference to a case pending before him."

K. S. Kjaer was fined $5 for parking overtime in Ice House Street on June 6.

E. Hammon, of Messrs. Schmidt and Co., was fined $40, when summoned for driving without due care and caution along Long Island Road on June 6.

Traffic-Sgt. Clarke said that defendant was driving with a party along Long Island Road, from Stanley to Shekko. He drove very fast and on the wrong side of the road. A complaint was made by Mr. Tinson, who nearly collided with defendant's car.

GAMBLING WIFE BOUND OVER

A woman, charged before Mr. T. J. Houston at the Kowloon Court yesterday, with the larceny of eight pieces of clothing, claimed that she was poorly treated by her husband and had been driven to theft because he did not give her any money.

The woman's husband related a different story. His wife, he accused, played mahjongg night after night. Money that he gave her was lost at the mahjongg table. Fellow-lodgers of his also testified to the accused's losing at mahjongg.

Lau Yuk-lau, 26, poorly spoken of in such manner by husband and friends, was bound over by the Magistrate on $50, to be of good behaviour, her husband's security to cover the bond only as long as she refrained from playing mahjongg.

O.R.C. RESPONSE

The military authorities have received a number of letters from local residents responding to the invitation recently issued to Britons to join an Officers' Reserve Corps, but are anxious to receive further applications, which will be treated strictly on their merits.

BUT EUROPE is quieter than in September last. There is no hint of the panic that then swayed the Continent. The threats of the Axis Powers, published chiefly abroad, are not taken as seriously, and the German Ministry of Propaganda, fearful of unleashing forces that would make it too late to retreat, imposes complete silence concerning Danzig on the Berlin newspapers.

NEVER was there a better demonstration of the fact that both the Governments and the peoples of Europe now realize that it is surrender to aggression that means destruction, that only an inflexible firm stand can preserve both peace and the rights of nations and individuals.

ALL INDICATIONS so far suggest that this stand will be taken at Danzig. If there is no change, it can with some confidence be predicted that Hitler will back down, that the Anglo-Soviet Pact will be concluded at an early date, and that the tide which has so far led the aggressors to fortune will no longer serve them so well.

GIVEN THESE much desired developments, one thing is certain: The turning of the tide in Europe will be accompanied by a similar improvement in the Far East. Tientsin and Danzig are symptoms of the same disease. Militarist Japan, having tied its destiny to that of the aggressors of the West, will share their eclipse as it has hoped to share their victories.

GOING HOME ON LEAVE

The Colonial Secretary, Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith, C.M.G., who is proceeding home to-day in the Felix Roussel, accompanied by Mrs. Smith and Miss Rachael Smith.

CORRESPONDENCE

WATER RESTRICTIONS

[To the Editor, The "Hongkong Daily Press"]

Sir,—May I, as a taxpayer resident of this Colony, inquire through the medium of your columns what the water authorities think they are playing at? Is this a game of "Now you see it, now you don't"? Just because the authorities concerned have not had the foresight to make provision for sufficient storage of water in Hongkong, I am expected, in these sweltering days of summer heat to go without my nightly bath which helps me to wash off the grime that one accumulates on one's body from unwashed and dusty streets.

It was only two months ago that we were told that Hongkong's rainfall had exceeded all expectations and that there was enough water in the "blinking reservoirs" to drown the whole lot of us in one big tidal wave! And now, suddenly, when there has been no very apparent increase in the Colony's population, we are again told that restriction must be applied again daily!

What is the real official explanation for this sorry state of affairs? I have lived in many British Colonies, and in several foreign countries as well, but never before have I experienced such annoyances and inconveniences as the authorities in Hongkong seem so fond of imposing on tax-payers.

REMAND GRANTED IN LARCENY CASE

A remand of two days was granted in the case in which Chan Ming-fong, 19, was charged with larceny from No. 4, Tung Shing Street, Aberdeen, of $608.60 Chinese Currency and one gold wrist-watch, the property of Chan Chi-yung.

After a report had been made to the Police by the complainant, defendant, who is the son of the complainant, received all the money.

FIRST "DARTS" GAMING CASE

Backing Chances Against Persons Staking Counters An Offence: Keeper Fined

Judgment was given by Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Magistracy yesterday in the case in which Wan Kam, 34, unemployed, was charged with keeping the ground floor of No. 55 Stanley Street as a common gaming house, and Lal Yee, 34, who was charged with gambling in the establishment.

First defendant was fined $10, whilst second defendant was cautioned.

Mr. J. B. Prentis, Assistant Crown Solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr. Alfred Y. Hon represented the defendants.

The following is the full text of the judgment:—

The 1st defendant is charged under Common Law and Sec. 6 of the Gambling Ordinance, 1891, with keeping the front ground floor room of No. 55 Stanley Street as a common gaming house as defined in the latter half of sub-section (3) of Sec. 2 (a) of the Ordinance, that is, a common gaming house for the purpose of money being received by him or on his behalf as the consideration for an undertaking to give there-after certain valuable things on a contingency relating to a game known as "darts." The 2nd defendant is charged with gambling in a common gaming house at the same place and time.

The main facts in the case are, I think, undisputed. The only material point on which the witnesses for the prosecution were cross-examined was whether the counters of only one person or more, than one person could be affected by the throw of a single dart, but if the defendants relied on establishing certain facts in this connection it is curious that neither of them has given any evidence.

FACTS PROVED

I am satisfied by the evidence given by the witnesses for the prosecution and find the following facts proved; that on the evening of June 13 the following pastime was going on in the front ground floor room of No. 55 Stanley Street, namely, that members of the public could enter—and were invited to enter by a person shouting, "Flying Darts Inside" at the entrance—and buy for money counters of varying amounts and stake these counters on one of 5 colours marked on a tressle table; that a dart was then thrown at a board some 10 feet or so away having small squares of the same 5 colours; that if the dart hit say blue, all persons who have staked on blue would win prizes according to the value of their counters, which prizes were worth considerably more than the amount of the counter staked, that any person staking was entitled to throw the dart himself—this appeared from the rules pasted on the wall as well as from the 1st witness's evidence, but equally that the person was not compelled to throw it himself, but could agree to be bound by the result of some one else's throw; that the 2nd defendant bought counters and took part in this game on 2 or 3 occasions; that the 1st defendant sold counters to players and admitted that he was the keeper; that persons were coming and going from the room and that at any one time there were some 13-14 persons on the premises.

It was submitted by Mr. Prentis for the prosecution on the authority of Peers v. Caldwell, 1918 K.B.D., Vol. I, p.371, and Peers v. Brown, C.A.R. Vol. 12, p.210, that this was a common gaming house as defined in the charge.

No evidence was called for the defence, but Mr. Hon citing Morris v. Godfrey, 106 L.T. 890 and the dissenting judgment of Lush J. in Peers v. Caldwell invited me to find as a fact whether or not this was a game of skill or a game of chance and if it were the former to discharge the defendants.

LITTLE EVIDENCE

But there is singularly little evidence before me to enable me to give such a finding of fact. The defence have called no evidence at all and the prosecution relying doubtless on the cases cited have not thought it necessary to call any specially directed to this point. It would no doubt be difficult to argue that the player who foregoes his own right to throw the dart himself agrees to be bound by the throw of another is indulging in a game of skill. As to the case of a solo-player throwing a dart simply in respect of his own counters, I express no opinion, having heard no evidence from any one who is competent to judge and has tried the board.

But in my view it is immaterial whether the game is one of skill or chance or how far skill predominates over chance in this game. The 1st defendant is charged with keeping a common gaming house within the Ordinance. The first definition comes from the Gaming Houses Act 1854, and under that definition it is material to determine whether a game is one of chance, skill, or mixed chance and skill.

WAS FOR PURPOSE

On the facts before me the question therefore I have to consider is whether this is a game of skill or a game of chance but the question whether the room was kept for the purpose as laid in the charge, or for some other purpose such as the purpose of enabling persons on payment of a fee to indulge their skill in the game of darts. It is quite clear to me from the evidence that it was for the purpose laid in the charge.

The keeper of the room was backing his chances against those of the persons staking counters

POSSESSION OF HEROIN PILLS

Man And Wife Sent To Sessions

On a charge of possession of 15,000 heroin pills, 432 ounces of pink mass, and 19 ounces of pink powder, sufficient for the manufacture of another 40,000 heroin pills, a man and his wife, Wong Tung and Lee Yi-kam, were committed by Mr. T. J. Houston at the Kowloon Court yesterday to the next Criminal Sessions. Revenue Officer W. H. E. Colledge prosecuted, while the defendants were represented by Mr. F. H. Loseby.

The defendants, with their 13-year-old daughter, were arrested at the junction of Tai Po Road and Maple Street, Shamshuipo, about 8.30 p.m. on June 20, by two members of the Police Reserve, P. C. R. 48 Thomas Thim Wong and P. C. R. 19 Lam Ching-fun.

They are alleged to have had in their possession a basket containing a tin box, a second tin box, and a cardboard box, the first two boxes mentioned containing the heroin pills, pink mass, and powder, and the cardboard box containing machinery for the manufacture of heroin pills.

CHOLERA, TUBERCULOSIS INCREASE

Sixty-two deaths from cholera out of a total of 100 cases (3 imported), and 81 deaths from tuberculosis, out of a total of 186 cases (one imported), occurred in the Colony for the week ending July 1, according to the returns of the Health Department.

Other returns include 18 deaths from enteric fever, out of a total of 20 cases; 8 deaths from dysentery, out of a total of 27 cases; 4 deaths from measles, out of a total of 9 cases; 4 deaths from cerebro-spinal fever, out of a total of 6 cases; one death from small-pox and one death from diphtheria, out of a total of two cases.

Daily returns from July 3 include 20 cases of tuberculosis, 9 cases of cholera, 4 cases of measles and 3 cases of enteric fever.

FAR EASTERN HEALTH REPORT

The following is the Health Bulletin of Eastern Ports for the week ending June 24:

Plague—Rangoon one case. Cholera—Cawnpore 4 cases, Calcutta 243 cases, Rangoon one case, Hongkong 50 cases.

Small-Pox—Jodhpur one death; Delhi City 22 cases, Bombay 10 cases, Calcutta 31 cases, Cochin one case, Madras 2 cases, Shanghai 3 cases.

JUNE RAINFALL

The monthly rainfall report issued by the Botanic Gardens shows that a total of 7.43 inches of rain fell in the Colony during June.

The heaviest showers were on June 12 (3.05 inches) and June 15 (1.56 inches).

Chief Inspector W. R. Chester-Woods, Principal of the Police Training School, has been appointed to perform the duties of Assistant Superintendent of Police (Kowloon) as from to-morrow during the temporary absence on sick leave of Mr. W. R. Scott.

and they their chances against his and that is an offence within the definition under which the prosecution have proceeded. The 1st defendant is therefore convicted on the charge as laid except for the excision of the words "Common Law" which seem to be unnecessary as this is a statutory offence. As this is, I believe, the first case of its kind I think justice will be done if I impose a fine of $10.

The 2nd defendant is charged with gambling in a common gaming house. The meaning of the charge is clear and no objection was taken to it, but the wording is not to be found in the Ordinance. The appropriate section seems to be section 7 (c) Gambling Ordinance and by virtue of section 21 Magistrates' Ordinance he is therefore convicted of paying money in a common gaming house for the consideration set out in the charge against 1st defendant, and cautioned.

"THEY SHOWED A QUIET BRAVERY THE MEMORY OF WHICH WILL LIVE WITH ME FOR EVER"

Capt. Oram Pays Tribute To Gallant Behaviour

Captain Oram, who was one of those who escaped from the ill-fated submarine Thetis, added dramatic details to the picture drawn by the Attorney-General, Sir Donald Somervell, K.C., who opened the public inquiry into the disaster on Monday.

With a tremor of emotion in his voice, Captain Oram paid a tribute to the gallant behaviour of all the men on board the Thetis at the time of the accident. "They showed a bravery the memory of which will live with me for ever," he declared.

LONDON, July 4 (Reuter).—Sir Donald Somervell, K.C., M.P., the Attorney-General, who yesterday made his opening address on behalf of the Admiralty at the start of the public inquiry into the loss of the submarine Thetis, after having stated that it had been arranged by those in the submarine shortly after she sank, that a man, or men, should escape by the Davis Apparatus to notify the searching vessels, said that it was then decided to await sending anyone to the surface until daylight and to spend the night in lightening the ship.

By midnight, continued Sir Donald Somervell, the air started to get very foul and there was weakness and other signs of physical distress.

Capt. Oram Volunteers

Ten tons of fresh water was pumped out and this brought the stern to the surface at about 7 o'clock next morning. The situation was then getting acute and many of the men were distressed and Capt. Oram volunteered to go to the surface with salvage instructions strapped to his arm, so that if he did not survive, the message might be found.

There was a call for volunteers and Capt. Oram chose Lieut. Woods on account of the latter's expert knowledge of submarines. These two men laboured their way through the submarine and one got an indication of the conditions by the fact that it was fifteen minutes before they had enough breath to enter the escape chamber.

"They Did Not Escape"
It was just after they had entered the escape chamber that depth charges were heard, indicating that the submarine had been located. Capt. Oram and Lieut. Woods reached the surface and were picked up by the destroyer, Brazen and subsequently four men were put in the escape chamber.

It was not known what had happened, but they did not escape. Three of them were found dead when the door was opened and the one man who was alive was too exhausted to explain the circumstances. Then two more men entered the chamber and they escaped and told the Commander of the Brazen at the rear of the crew were coming up. It was impossible to say why no more succeeded in escaping and whether this was due to increasing weakness or some further accident.

Dramatic Details

Capt. Oram added the dramatic details to the Attorney-General's picture of the disaster when he gave evidence.

He said that while they were waiting for the arrival of the rescue vessels, all the food in the submarine was in the flooded compartment. He added, "That did matter as one did feel the hunger."

Describing the reason why no men went to the surface during the night of June 1, Capt. Oram said that there was a strong tide and it would have meant certain death unless there were ships in the near vicinity.

Capt. Oram added that when he came to the surface, he felt entirely hopeful that the others would be able to escape, as his own escape had presented no difficulty. In his opinion the three men who were drowned must have operated the apparatus incorrectly.

Asked to suggest a reason why no other men escaped, Capt. Oram said: "I can only suppose that some major disaster occurred to the men inside the submarine."

Highly Dangerous

Asked about the possibility of cutting a hole in the stern, Capt. Oram declared that to cut a hole in the after compartment was highly dangerous as the compartment was only just showing above the water and artificially held up by a single wire.

With a tremor of emotion in his voice, Capt. Oram spoke of the very gallant behaviour of all the men on board. "I saw no sign of panic at any time. Whenever there was any work to be done, I heard the men talking and joking until the foul air caused them to keep quiet."

"They showed a quiet bravery the memory of which will live with me for ever," he said. The inquiry was adjourned until concluded.

SHANGHAI TRAGEDY INQUEST

BRITAIN RESERVES ALL RIGHTS

LONDON, July 4 (Reuter).—In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. R.A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said that Lord Halifax had just received a report of the inquest proceedings on Dr. Lillie, who met his death in Shanghai as a sequel to a motor crash.

Mr. Butler said he was unable to say what action would be appropriate, pending full consideration; but in the meantime, the British Consul-General in Shanghai had addressed a note to his Japanese colleague, reserving all rights regarding the events which had led up to the tragedy.

Damages Claim

Mr. F. J. Bellenger (Lab.) asked if Britain had any money rights in the matter? Might it not be possible to make some claim for damages on behalf of the widow of Dr. Lillie?

Mr. Butler replied that was an important aspect of the question, which would certainly be kept in mind.

SIR PHILIP SASSOON'S BEQUESTS

The value of Sir Philip Sassoon's estate is in the neighbourhood of £2,000,000.

The Hon. Evelyn Fitz-Gerald is an executor of the estate, with the Trustee Department of the Westminster Bank, and he receives a bequest of £5000.

This is a testimony of the high opinion in which Mr. Fitz-Gerald is generally held. He is highly respected and affectionately esteemed by all who come into contact with him.

Sir Philip's tribute to him will cause no surprise among his friends.

Annuity For Dame

Sir Philip's secretary, Miss Boyce, receives £300 a year under the will. The "dame" of his house at Eton, Miss Skey, who has now retired and lives near the Cheddar Gorge, in Somerset, receives an annuity of £100. Sir Philip visited her frequently after he left Eton in 1907.

Each of Sir Philip's servants receives one year's salary.

A legacy of £5000 goes to the Royal Northern Hospital, and the residue of the estate to the three children of Lord Cholmondeley.

Mrs Gubbay's Inheritance

Mrs. David Gubbay inherits the life-tenure of Trent Park, with £10,000 a year free of tax, and Lympne, with its contents.

Though Lympne is a pleasant domain it is not of great value. Its contents are valued at £10,000.

The greater part of Sir Philip's valuable pictures are in his Park-lane house.

Unemployment Reduced In Great Britain

LONDON, July 4 (B.W.).—As forecast by the Minister of Labour in the House of Commons yesterday, the returns issued to-night show another considerable decline in the numbers of registered unemployed.

The Minister of Labour estimates that the number of insured persons in employment in Great Britain on June 12 was about 12,810,000, an increase of 143,000 over the previous month and of 800,000 since last year.

On the same date, registered unemployment totalled 1,349,579, comprising 1,098,793 wholly unemployed, 195,825 temporarily laid off, and 55,181 normally in casual employment. The total was 142,703 less than a month before, and 453,333 less than a year ago.

The Foreign Affairs Committee of the Cabinet met at 10 Downing Street yesterday under the chairmanship of the Prime Minister (B.W.).

BOMB THROWN AT ARAB CAFE

JERUSALEM, July 4 (T/Ocean).—Another act of terrorism is reported from Haifa on Monday night and caused the British authorities to proclaim martial law over the city for an indefinite time.

A bomb was thrown into an Arab cafe near the chief police station. One Arab was killed, seven injured, several of them very severely.

NEW ZEALAND NOT AFRAID OF JAPAN

Finance Minister Interviewed

LONDON, July 4 (Reuter).—Mr. Walter Nash, the New Zealand Minister of Finance, who is on a short visit to Eire, is reported to have stated in Dublin in an interview, that New Zealand is unlikely to send another expeditionary force in the event of Britain becoming involved in a war.

New Zealand was already taking steps to defend herself, he said. There was less fear of the Japanese in New Zealand than in Australia.

New Zealand, declared Mr. Nash, was keener on a commonwealth ideal than the Empire.

H.K. AUXILIARY FIRE SERVICE

The Hongkong Government is preparing to carry into effect schemes for passive defence against aerial attack and the Hongkong Fire Brigade is authorised to proceed with the duty of organising a voluntary force of auxiliary firemen and other essential personnel to assist the professional Brigade in an emergency.

Owing to pressure on space the details of the organisation are held over and will be published in to-morrow's issue.

As Acting Sub-Inspector C. Goodwin is shortly proceeding on leave, it has been found necessary to appoint another officer to take over the duties of secretary of the Police Football Club. A meeting will be held for this purpose at Police Headquarters at 5 p.m. to-day.

TIENTSIN, KULANGSU FOOCHOW & WENCHOW MR. R. A. BUTLER INFORMS THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

LONDON, July 4 (Reuter).—Questions about the four Chinese, which had given immediate rise to the present situation in Tientsin, evoked a statement from Mr. R.A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in the House of Commons yesterday, that he was unable to add anything to what had already been said in view of the impending start of the Tokyo conversations.

Mr. Noel Baker (Lab.) asked if it might be assumed that the Government was not going to hand over the four Chinese until proof was shown that they were guilty of the murder?

Mr. Butler replied that that was a matter to be discussed in the coming negotiations. He denied that the Government had gone back on the statement that they would not hand over the men until some evidence was forthcoming that they were guilty.

Mr. Greenwood (Lab.) asked for a definite assurance that the men would not be handed over pending the negotiations.

Mr. Butler replied that there was no intention of handing them over pending the negotiations.

Kulangsu Position

With regard to the situation in Kulangsu, Mr. Butler said further proposals which had been made by the Japanese Consul-General to the Kulangsu Municipal Council were now being considered and his latest information was that

DANZIG QUESTION: "WHEN?"

Berlin Anger But —

FATE OF FREE CITY DECIDED

BERLIN, July 4 (Reuter).—"Mr. Neville Chamberlain should be more careful of the sources from which he gets his information," Reuter was told, in political circles yesterday evening, in regard to the Prime Minister's statement in the House of Commons yesterday regarding Danzig.

It was added that there was nothing illegal and nothing of an extraordinary military nature happening in Danzig. The Free City was merely reorganizing and extending its police service as it was perfectly entitled to do.

Disguised Soldiers?

It was true that a great many German tourists had visited the city, but if Mr. Chamberlain meant that they were disguised soldiers, he was completely on the wrong track.

High Nazi officials professed astonishment that Britain should stimulate Poland's "intransigence and presumption" by continually repeating her blank cheque offer and it was added that it would have been better if the British Labour Party had appealed to the Poles instead of to the Germans.

High Treason?

Official quarters are angered by the Labour appeal and declare that such attempts to seduce the people from a government smack of high treason.

Meanwhile, the press and official quarters ridicule the "panic" in London and Paris, but nobody attempts to deny that Danzig's fate is decided, and the only remaining question is "When?"

The answer rests with Herr Hitler, who returned to Berlin this evening and was welcomed by an unusually large crowd.

R.A.F. RECRUITING

LONDON, July 4 (B.W.).—The number of recruits joining the Royal Air Force last week was 781 compared with 438 during the corresponding week last year, bringing the total increase of pilots, observers, airmen and boys since April 1 to 12,285, compared to 4,976 for the corresponding period of 1938.

every shipload of war supplies for Japan embargoed contributes its share toward stopping aggression.

This undeclared war has now assumed a new aspect. It is this new aspect of Japan's continental expansion that forms the theme of my talk to-night.

An Open Secret

For the purpose of driving out all Western interests from the continent of Asia, Japan is now instigating an anti-foreign movement. It is an open secret that the violent campaign against foreigners in the Japanese-occupied areas in the form of demonstrations, meetings, distribution of posters, and so forth, are planned, financed and directed by the Japanese. The Chinese who happened to take part in such demonstrations have absolutely no freedom, like the puppet officials.

The Japanese-controlled press have been appealing to the people of Asia to "unite to drive out the foreigners," and carried such glaring slogans as "boycott British goods," "confiscate British property," "recover all British concessions," and "swear not to co-operate with the British."

Britain Singled Out

Britain is singled out for attack now, as it is hoped to drive a wedge between the Powers by such tactics, but it is obvious that the flames of the Japanese-inspired anti-foreign movement will sooner or later spread to the doors of other Powers.

A Japanese politician by the name of Seigo Nakano, during a recent visit to Shanghai, declared that "the object of Japan's campaign in China is not only China, but also Britain and America, who are Japan's real enemies."

This campaign to expel foreigners bag and baggage from Asia is not an overnight inspiration. The famous, or, rather, infamous, Tanaka Memorial of 1928 reveals somewhat in detail the Island Empire's policy of colonial expansion and advocates the necessity of coming to a clash with Great Britain, France, Russia, the United States and other Powers for the purpose of dominating the Pacific, and then struggling for world supremacy.

In 1935, Hirota, then Foreign Minister of Japan, enunciated his three-point "Hands Off China" policy, which was an attempt to achieve by diplomacy the sealing of the "open door" and the exclusion of foreign interests from China.

The destruction of Western property and investments on this continent forms part and parcel of the made-in-Japan "New Order in East Asia" which may more appropriately be called "Disorder in East Asia."

Divine Mission

Japanese militarists, who are obsessed with the idea of a Divine Mission to "reform" the world, now feel the time is ripe to carry out the policy of southward expansion. That is why on February this year, Hainan Island was occupied. The strategic importance of this island cannot be over-estimated, as it is situated between the Indian and the Pacific Ocean.

This move is a direct threat to the Philippines and French Indo-China, and makes possible the severance of communications between Hongkong and other parts of the British Empire in the Southern Pacific.

By building a naval and aerial base on this island, the

Necessary Self-Defence

JAPANESE REPORT ON BORDER CLASH

LONDON, July 4 (Reuter).—The Japanese Embassy has issued a statement retelling the recent clashes on the Outer Mongol border, declaring that the "general attack launched against Soviet and Mongolian troops at the week-end was done in necessary self-defence in the face of repeated persistent provocations by the Soviet and Mongolian forces and that there was no other reason than to ensure the safety of the frontier."

Japanese can strike at Singapore, Guam, and even Australia and New Zealand.

The next move of the invaders in a southerly direction was the occupation of the French Sparsley Island. These islands lie further south, and is one step nearer to the Philippines, the Dutch East Indies, Borneo and the Straits Settlements.

Intention Manifest

The intention to seize all foreign concessions and settlements in China has been manifested on more than one occasion by responsible spokesmen on behalf of Tokyo.

The blockading of the Hankow French concession a few months ago, the landing of Japanese bluejackets on the International Settlement of Kiangsu last month, the instigating of incidents in Shanghai, and the blockading of the French and British concessions in Tientsin, all show that Japan is bent on taking all the foreign concessions and settlements.

It is no secret that large numbers of anti-race elements are even being organized to storm the concessions. Not content with their blockade of the Tientsin concessions, the Japanese warned the foreign warships and commercial vessels to leave the port of Swatow, and a further warning was given relative to other treaty ports.

The man-in-the-street should now fully realize that Japanese aggression on China is, at the same time, directed against Western Powers. Japan is closing the whole China coast to foreign commerce through her blockade. She has for over a year closed China's longest river, the Yangtze, to foreign shipping, and she intends to do so indefinitely.

A Vital Issue

The Powers are now faced with the vital issue of whether to maintain or abandon their treaty rights in this part of the world. In my opinion, to come to a compromise offers no lasting solution, as it is the fixed policy of the aggressor to monopolize and preserve Asia exclusively for herself.

The events of the past two years have abundantly shown that acceptance of one Japanese demand will give rise to new and more comprehensive demands. The Chinese people abhor the indignities and outrages suffered by foreigners, particularly the British, at the hands of the Japanese in Tientsin and elsewhere, who seem to have lost all sense of decency.

It would be too revealing for me to describe in detail the disgraceful treatment of Englishmen and Englishwomen who have been subjected.

But to every cloud there is a silver lining. And the four hundred and eighty million people of China are confident that Right and Justice will ultimately triumph.

$2,500 STOLEN FROM POCKET

A report has been made to the police by Kan Chi-yueh, of No. 259 Yuechow Street, that he either lost or had stolen from his pocket the sum of $2,500 in the city yesterday.

It is learned that Kan was on his way to an exchange shop in Queen's Road Central to purchase U. S. dollars.

The money was made up of three Hongkong and Shanghai Bank and two Chartered Bank $500 notes.

FINNISH ELECTION RESULTS

HELSINKI, July 4 (T/Ocean).—Only minor changes are the result of the elections to Finnish Parliament held on July first and third. According to preliminary unofficial figures 85 Social Democrats were returned gaining 2 seats compared with the 1936 elections. Agrarians 55 gaining 2; Finnish Coalition Party 24, gaining 4; Swedes 18, losing 3; Progressive Party 8, gaining 1 seat; Patriotic National Movement 7, losing 7; Small Farmers' Party 3, gaining 1.

The Government majority composed of the Social Democrats, Agrarians and Progressive Party won 148 seats out of a total of 200, as compared with a total of 143 representatives in the last Parliament.

of see-saw battles. They are now engaged in a "clearing up" operation against the remnant Japanese inside the town.

About 600 Japanese with tanks rushing from Hwaiyin to rescue their comrades in Tientsin have been beaten back by the Chinese lying in ambush on the way.

Chinese Raid

YUNGYUN, July 4 (Central).—Chinese plainclothes men raided Tienho Aerodrome in the eastern suburbs of Canton last Thursday night, according to a report received here.

In the ensuing engagement scores of Japanese were killed and wounded. The Chinese withdrew safely afterwards.

A fishmonger, who pleaded guilty to the larceny of $1,260 worth of jewellery from the home of a merchant, at 314, Nathan Road, 1st floor, on June 9, and who admitted having spent the money at Macao, was sentenced to six months with hard labour by Mr. Q.A.A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court yesterday.

Found in the premises of No. 36 Wyndham Street, second floor, at about 11.15 p.m. on July 2, with intent to commit a felony, Wong Wah, 19, an ex-house boy, was sentenced to three months hard labour by Mr. R. Edwards, at the Central Court yesterday.

BRITAIN HAS FASTEST AIR FORCE: SECRET OF NEW BOMBER REVEALED

It was officially announced on June 1 that the new Bristol Beaufort monoplane with which the R. A. F. are now to be equipped is the fastest twin-engined bomber in the world.

This news follows the report two days ago of new and faster fighters being designed for the R. A. F.

Together the new types—bomber and fighter—will make the R. A. F. the fastest air force in the world.

The Society of British Aircraft Constructors make the announcement about the bomber after being supplied with the information by the Air Ministry. The monoplane was removed from the secret list last Friday, but no details of its speed were given.

More Than 300 m.p.h.

The Society now state that the new bomber can attain "speeds considerably higher than are attainable by the Blenheim—hitherto fastest bomber in the Royal Air Force."

The top speed of the Blenheim twin-engined bomber is officially 295 m.p.h. Therefore the Beaufort's top speed must be considerably in excess of 300 m.p.h.

The improved methods adopted in the construction of the new bomber and its advanced design are indicated by exceptionally low structural weight.

HOLIDAY CASUALTIES IN U.S.

NEW YORK, July 4 (Reuter).—The casualties so far during the four-day Fourth of July Holiday, number 248 dead and hundreds injured, mostly due to motor accidents and drownings, but shootings had accounted for nine. The intense heat has sent millions to the beaches and many were sleeping on the sands for the last two days.

The five million visitor entered the British Pavilion at the World's Fair yesterday and the total attendance since the opening of the Fair exceeds 11½ million.

TOKYO'S TIENTSIN TALKS

JAPANESE ARMY'S ATTITUDE

TOKYO, July 4. (Trans-ocean).—The attitude of the Japanese Army towards the forthcoming Anglo-Japanese discussions was defined by the Japanese War Ministry yesterday.

The Japanese Army, it was declared, demanded first of all that Britain should consent to a discontinuation of all support to the Chiang Kai-Shek regime; negotiations would be meaningless. Britain should adapt her policy to the new situation in the Far East and should show understanding of the Japanese attitude in Tientsin.

The War Ministry spokesman emphasised further that, from the very beginning of the Tientsin blockade, the measures of the local Japanese military authorities had met with the fullest approval and support of the high command at Tokyo.

Two Delegates

TOKYO, July 4. (Trans-ocean).—It is stated authoritatively in Tokyo that the Japanese military authorities in Tientsin have decided to send two delegates to the forthcoming Anglo-Japanese talks in Tokyo.

The two representatives, Lt. Colonel Kimihida Ohta and Police Major Seichi Ohta, will leave Tientsin by plane this morning.

LORDS' QUERY ON FAR EAST POSTPONED

LONDON, July 4 (Reuter).—In view of the opening of the negotiations in Tokyo, Lord Cecil, at the request of Lord Halifax, the Foreign Secretary, has postponed a question which was put down in the House of Lords for Thursday asking the Government to give further information in regard to the position in the Far East.

The question would have occasioned a full-dress debate.

WANG'S PLANS FAIL

Inauguration Of New Regime Is Postponed

SHANGHAI, July 4 (In'V).—The puppet regime to be headed by Wang Ching-wei for inauguration on July 7, the second anniversary of the Sino-Japanese war, has been postponed to October 10, owing to the many difficulties in the way. It is feared that the whole project may be still-born.

According to the present scheme, Wang will style himself as President, with Wang Keh-min as Vice-President, and, concurrently, Premier.

Actual power will be in the hands of Wang Keh-min, head of the Provisional Government in Peiping, and this means that the formation of another pro-Japanese regime does not change the situation, despite the feverish manoeuvres of Wang and his followers, not to mention the antagonism and rivalry in the puppet camps.

ANTI-BRITISH MOVEMENT

Mission Property Entered

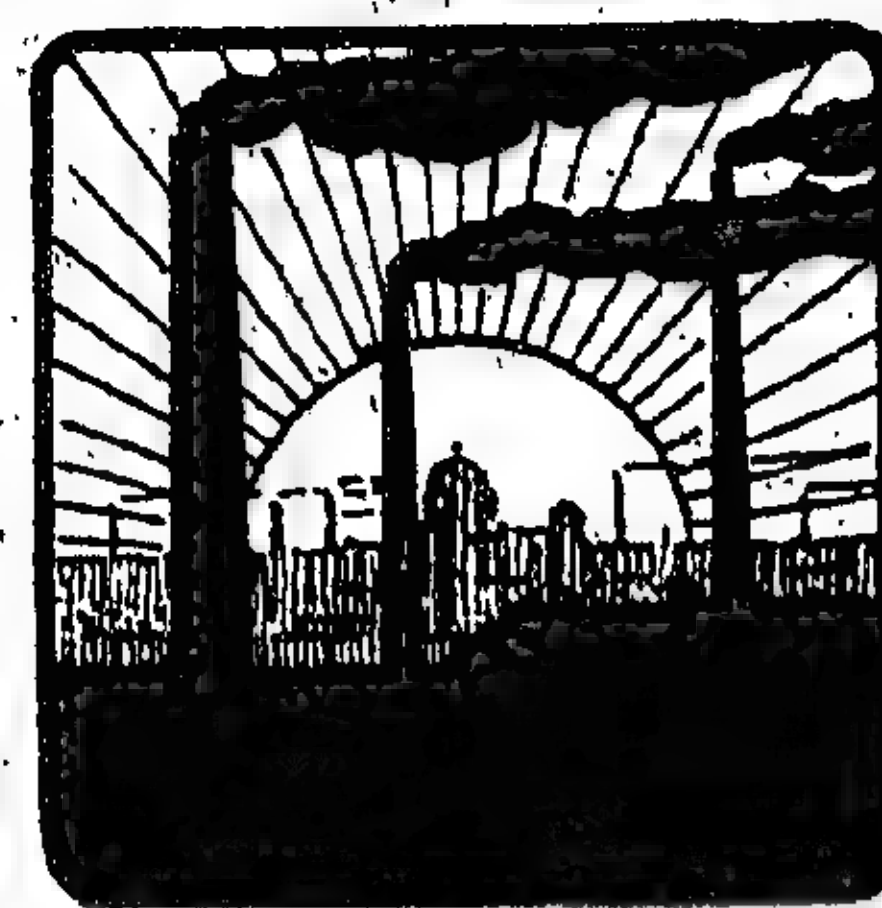

PEIPING, July 4 (Reuter).—Official Japanese sources report that anti-British meetings were held in Linfeng, Lunshih and Hungtung in Shansi.

It was stated that at Linfeng and Hungtung, Mission property was forcibly entered in the absence of the missionaries and the intruders are said to have removed the furniture which is now in the hands of the Japanese military.

The Japanese report adds that missionaries from the three towns are now on their way to Peiping, "presumably because of the anti-British Movement."

COMMODITY MARKET REVIEW

(FROM PAYNE & CO.)

New York, July 3, 1939.

JAN.-MARCH	28-1/2	28-3/4	28-3/8	28-5/8	"

The market opened with prices unchanged for all deliveries as compared with Saturday's closing quotations.

Quiet conditions prevailed throughout the day due to the fact that the Rubber Exchanges in London and New York were closed on Saturday last as customary during the summer months.

Whilst there was a fair demand for "actuals" dealers and speculators preferred to maintain side-line positions, awaiting further developments before entering into fresh commitments.

Other than the European political uncertainty, there is little change in the statistical position underlying the favourable long term price-outlook. Consumption in U.S.A. for the third quarter is variously estimated as from 110,000 to 120,000 tons-which, if materialized, would be regarded satisfactory in view of seasonal influences. Furthermore low inventories held by American manufacturers coupled with anticipations of fair business improvement during autumn seem to justify the belief held in Rubber-circles that a policy of conservative accumulation should be followed.

Market quiet.

NEW YORK COTTON

- Initial prices were slightly marked down to-day, and the market presented an easy appearance. The undertone, however, was better. Later, the market improved and prices moved up with good speculative buying and "bear" covering. The advance was further sustained by trade and foreign buying, with the firmest undertone prevailing at the close.

NEW YORK RUBBER

The market was very quiet and dull, reflecting the impending holiday. Trading was negligible and resulted in a lower adjustment of prices.

CHICAGO WHEAT

The market was again depressed by hedge-selling and prices were considerably marked down. Weather considerations continued to be the dominating factor in the market.

NEW FOREIGN EXCHANGE REGULATIONS EXPLAINED: DR. KUNG URGES ECONOMY

CHUNGKING, July 4 (Central).—In a statement regarding the new regulations for the allotment of foreign exchange for approved imports issued last night, Dr. H. H. Kung, Minister of Finance, said that, in spite of these new arrangements, the Sino-British Stabilisation Fund Committee will function as usual.
The Committee formed jointly by the Chinese and British authorities has proved its efficacy in the stabilisation of the exchange market, Dr. Kung commented.

Dr. Kung explained that the restrictions imposed on non-essential imports are aimed at stopping the drain on the Stabilisation Fund as a result of the manipulations for foreign exchange on the part of unscrupulous merchants.
Exchange obtained from exports, with the exception of wood oil, tea, bristles, and mineral products, transactions of which will be based on the barter agreements and commodity credit agreements, according to Dr. Kung, will be delivered to the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications.

The exporters will receive a sum based upon the difference between the official exchange rates and the rates jointly announced from time to time by the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications.
Exchange for essential imports may be applied for from the Exchange Examination Committee. After approval, it will be granted at the official rate of the Central Bank, but applicants will be required to pay a charge equal to the difference between the official rates and the rates announced from time to time by the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications.

Dr. Kung urged all Chinese citizens to practice strict economy during this emergency time. They should dispense with all luxuries and non-essential articles and save the money for the national reconstruction purposes.
In the meantime native products should be exported as much as possible in order to seek for a favourable balance of trade.

CHUNGKING, July 4 (Central).—Dr. H. H. Kung, President of the Executive Yuan and concurrently Minister of Finance, announced today the list of articles, importation of which is prohibited temporarily during the hostilities.
According to the list, 234 tariff numbers out of the total of 672 in the Import Tariff are affected by the new restrictive measures. Notable among these are silk and manufactures thereof, wines, beer, spirits, tobacco, fish dried and smoked, shark fins, asparagus, bacon and hams, beef, corned or pickled, birds' nests, biscuits, confectionery, eggs, honey, tea, fruits, pepper, spices, cigarettes, liquid fuels, various kinds of paper, skins (furs), bamboo and manufactures thereof, mats, woodware and Chinaware of many kinds, mirrors, gramophones, phonographs, and other talking machines, jewellery and ornaments, musical instruments, pearls, real and imitation, perfumery, cosmetics, toilet equipment, toys and games, umbrellas and works of art.

THE REGULATIONS

Following is a translation of the regulations issued by the Ministry of Finance on July 1 relating to import prohibitions:

1. Importation of commodities of foreign origin is prohibited effective immediately.
2. Inter-port transshipment of these imported commodities is also prohibited from date of issuance of the order prohibiting their importation.
3. Private concerns of individuals, with approval of responsible government organizations, may apply for importation of any of these prohibited commodities when necessary to adjust the prices in the interior, to meet special cases based upon actual needs the Ministry of Finance may issue special licenses for importation and transportation. Separate regulations will be issued governing issuance of such special licenses.
4. These regulations will apply also to importation and inter-port transshipment of these prohibited articles by parcel post.

EXPORT EXCHANGE

Following is a translation of the regulations issued by the Ministry of Finance on July 1 relating to export exchange:

1. All foreign exchange derived from exports whether handled by Government trading organizations or private firms, must be sold at official rates of the Central Bank to the Bank of China, or the Bank of Communications, except in the case of shipments of wood oil, tea, bristles and mineral products which, in view of the barter arrangements and arrangements for commodity credits and purchase of essential materials, are handled by the government trading organizations on the basis of the best prices obtainable in view of the conditions of domestic production and world markets.
2. Exporters, after foreign exchange derived from export goods has been delivered to the Bank of China or the Bank of Communications at official rates, shall receive upon the production of necessary evidence a sum equal to the difference between the official rates and the rates announced by these banks from time to time, subject to payment by the exporter a charge not exceeding three per cent in rate.
3. The sum equal to the difference between the two rates as specified in the above article will be paid in Chinese currency at any place in the interior agreed upon with the handling bank.

EXCHANGE OF IMPORTS

Following are the regulations concerning the application for exchange in respect of imports as announced by the Ministry of Finance:

1. Importers of goods that are not prohibited but are essential may apply to the Exchange Examination Committee at Chungking for exchange.
2. Applicants shall fill out a form giving the kind of goods, quantity, price, origin, port of importation and destination together with necessary evidence.
3. When exchange is granted, the Exchange Examination Committee shall issue to the applicant a special exchange permit of which a duplicate is to be given to the Bank of China or the Bank of Communications as designated by the Committee to issue the exchange.
4. Exchange will be furnished by the Bank of China or the Bank of Communications at official rates but the applicant shall pay a charge equal to the difference between the official rates and the rates to be announced from time to time by the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications.

5. Special exchange permits shall be returned to the Exchange Examination Committee for cancellation after the exchange has been delivered.
6. These regulations supersede the regulations of March 12, 1938 and subsequent amendments thereof. They shall take effect from date of promulgation.

NEW POWER PLANT IN KUNMING

KUNMING, July 4 (Central).—To meet the growing demand of the increased population, a new power plant capable of delivering 4,000 kilowatt is being built here by the Reconstruction Department of the Yunnan Provincial Government.
Construction work on the plant was begun last March and is now nearing completion.

HOME CRICKET

Goddard Equals Bowling Record

LONDON, July 4 (Reuter).—The match between Cambridge and Oxford was continued yesterday at Lords.

Cambridge score 157 in their first innings. Evans taking 4 for 55.

Oxford had scored 273 for 3 at close of play. Proud 87, Lomas 91. Gloucester scored an innings victory over Kent at Bristol.

Gloucester: 284 (Hammond 153 not out, Wright 9 for 47).

Kent: 120 (Goddard 8 for 68).

By taking 17 wickets in one day, Goddard equalled the record set up by Blythe in 1907 and Verity in 1933 and also equalled the record for a match, which has been done many times.

Goddard was the first to take 100 wickets this season.

Derby beat Essex at Chesterfield by 10 wickets.

Essex: 143 (Copson 6 for 57) and 117 (Copson 4 for 21).

Derby: 214 (Stephenson 6 for 41) and 47 for 0.

West Indies defeated Nottinghamshire by an innings and 94 runs.

Notts 149 (Constantine 8 for 50) and 287; West Indies 510 for 3 dec. (George Headley 234 not out. Sealey 115).

BRECONSHIRE

TRIAL ON JULY 19

The new Glen line steamer, Breconshire which was launched from the Talkoo Docks on February 2, will undergo her trial runs in East Lamma Channel on Wednesday, July 19.

The course set is three miles, and the ship will be taken over it at a speed of 18 knots. Warning is being given to vessels and junks from Aberdeen and other places which are likely to be in the vicinity.

The Breconshire is the largest ship ever to be built in Hongkong, as well as in the Empire, outside of Great Britain.

HONGKONG CYCLING CLUB

MASSED CLUB RUN: PREPARATIONS FOR ALL-CYCLING MEET

Entries for the Massed Club Run, which takes place on July 9, close at mid-day on July 6. Riders participating will meet at the Alhambra Theatre, Kowloon, at 8.15 a.m. on July 9 and move off at 8.30 a.m.

On completion of the 54 miles run by reaching Alhambra Theatre at 5.30 p.m., all riders completing the Course will be presented with a splendid Souvenir Certificate.

Training Rides

During training rides on the difficult Shek-O road course on June 28 Geo. Cottrell succeeded in leading the Colony champion, H.A.G. Keates, at the halfway mark in a 10 miles trial.

Cottrell covered the first 24 miles in 7.28 to lead by 14 secs. On the return into the wind Keates reduced this lead to 3 secs., Cottrell thus leading at 5 miles in 15.29 against 16.32.

The third quarter saw Keates riding brilliantly to clock 22.48, 18 secs. faster than his rival, and the final section found him gaining a further 37 secs., to win in 30.19 against Cottrell's 31.14.

Keates improved his 10 miles record for course from 31.39, but failed to get near his 5 miles figure of 14.28. Cottrell improved both his 5 and 10 mile times on this road, his previous bests being 15.50 and 34.01.

King's Road Trials

In trials ridden on the King's Road Course on June 30 fast times over 5 miles were clocked by Keates and R. H. McDowell. The former, using a 64 gear as for his previous trial, recorded 12.45 (23.529 m.p.h.), only 7 secs. slower than the Colony record, whilst the latter clocked 13.50 (21.886 m.p.h.) on a 69 gear.

McDowell is preparing for the Caroline Hill Meeting very seriously, and it will be no surprise to local cycling officials if he sweeps the board on August Bank Holiday.

All Cycling Meeting

There has been a considerable demand for accommodation at the All-Cycling Meeting to be held at Caroline Hill on August 5 and 7. It is predicted that all tickets (obtainable from the Organiser, c/o Dunlop Rubber Company (China) Ltd., Marina House, 2nd Floor) will be booked before the Meeting opens.

Entry forms for events may be had on application to the Organiser, or to Mr. H. A. G. Keates, Hon. Secretary Hongkong Cycling Club, c/o R.A.S.C., Wellington Barracks.

HUA HSING BANK: MR. BUTLER'S USUAL REPLY

LONDON, July 4 (Reuter).—Replying to Mr. M. P. Price (Lab) in the House of Commons yesterday concerning the establishment of the Hua Hsing Bank and its commercial effect, Mr. Butler, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said that the situation was being closely watched by the department concerned.

Mr. Price asked if the British Government had any actual proposal to deal with this danger? Mr. Butler: One can always indicate one's intentions, but Mr. Price may rest assured that the matter is fully under consideration.

WIMBLEDON

Miss Hardwick (Britain) beat Mrs. Sperling (Denmark) beat Miss Jean Saunders (Britain) 6-2, 6-4.

The last eight women in the order of the draw are: Miss Helen Jacobs v. Miss Stammer; Madame Mathieu v. Mrs. Fabian; Miss Hardwick v. Mrs. Sperling; and Miss Jedrejowska v. Miss Alice Marble.

MEN'S DOUBLES

In the Men's Doubles, third round, Hare and Wilde (Britain) beat Edwards and Morton (Britain) 6-1, 6-3, 6-3.

Hughes and Billington (Britain) beat Gabony and Szigete (Hungary) 6-2, 4-6, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2.

MIXED DOUBLES

In the Mixed Doubles, McNeil (U.S.) and Miss Stammer (Britain) beat Henkel (Germany) and Miss Gracyn Wheeler (U.S.) 6-4, 6-3.

WOMEN'S DOUBLES

In the Women's Doubles, Miss Helen Jacobs (U.S.) and Miss York (Britain) beat Mlle. Couquerque and Mlle. Pannetier (France) 6-1, 4-6.

ALL-ENGLAND PLATE

In the All-England Plate for those who were beaten in the first and second round, in the second tie Howell (Britain) beat Ho (China) 5-7, 6-3, 6-4.

Distinguished Spectators

A Trans-Ocean message states that the games were watched by the German Ambassador in London, Herr Herbert von Dirksen, and his wife, Sir Samuel and Lady Hoare and Mrs. Chamberlain, wife of the British Prime Minister.

The Semi-Finalists

Of 128 men who started in Wimbledon one week ago, only four remained on Monday evening for the semi-finals.

Henkel (Germany), Puncos (Yugoslavia), and Riggs and Cooke (United States) all experienced players.

None of the dark horses like the American, E. Smith, the Indian, Ghaus Mohamed, or the Yugoslav, Kukuljevic, who gained surprise victories in the first few days of the tournament were able to reach the semi-finals.

The matches on Monday proved once more that not a single player is really in outstanding form among the participants of the competition.

Women's Singles

In regard to the Women's Singles, the opinion in Wimbledon quarters as to the result of the next rounds are far from being uniform, but it is assumed generally that either Miss Alice Marble or Mlle. Jadviga Jedrejowska will gain the final victory.

The doubles and mixed doubles are not yet sufficiently far advanced to make a prediction of the possible winners.

ALL-ENGLAND PLATE

WIMBLEDON, July 4 (Reuter).—In the second round of the All-England Plate, Betty Batt defeated the Chinese girl, Gem Hoang, by scores of 6-3, 7-5.

Miss Hoang had an off day and was erratic. She led 4-2 in the second set.

QUARTER-FINALS

In the quarter-finals of the women's singles, Miss Alice Marble (U.S.), as was expected, proved too good for the hard hitting Polish Mlle. Jedrejowska, while a fellow-American, Mrs. Sarah Faltrey Fabian, conqueror of Mrs. Dorothy Round Little, did well to defeat Madame Mathieu, the French champion. The American's greater agility proved to be a telling factor.
